Our mission at Stahl's No Harm Farm Animals Sanctuary is to provide sanctuary to farm animals that are or are at risk of becoming neglected, abused and/or exploited. We will provide a healing, loving atmosphere to farm animals that are surrendered, rescued and/or abandoned.

We will attempt to re-home appropriate animals where they will be loved and free from harm.

We believe all sentient beings deserve a life filled with peace, love and compassion. Through education, promoting veganism and advocating for animal rights, we aim to inspire society to change their view of farm animals from one that is oppressive to one that views all animals as sentient beings and worthy of a peaceful life free from harm.

VISION

We vision a peaceful world where farm animals are no longer bred into existence for humankind to exploit, abuse or neglect, a world where animals can live free from harm and cruelty.

Although we promote a vegan lifestyle, our volunteers do not need to be vegan.
